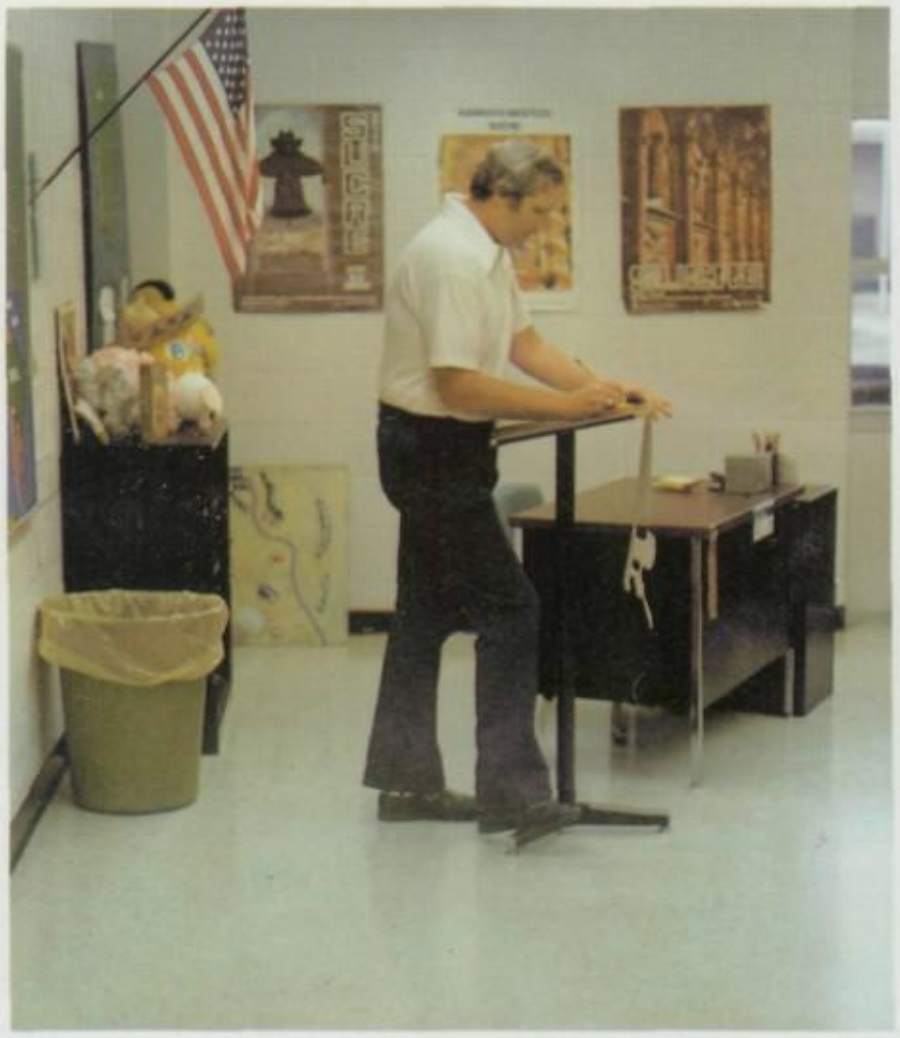
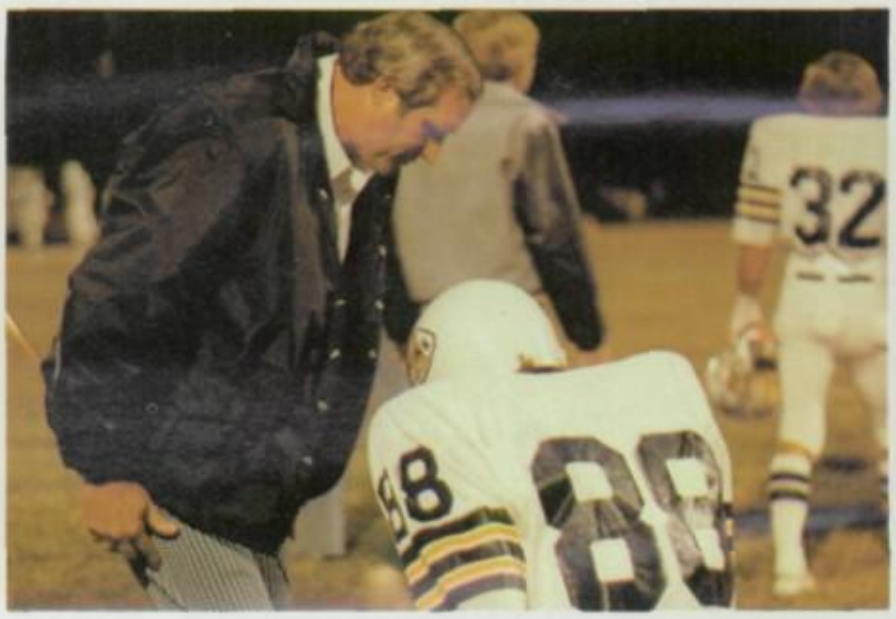
DEDICATION

In appreciation for his hard work and loyalty to Pulaski Academy, we dedicate the 1980 yearbook to Mr. Charles Ferriter. Our school owes alot to Coach, as he is commonly known. In the past 8 years that he has been at the Academy, he has been responsible for the creation of our football and basketball teams. He started from scratch and made the sports program what it is today.





Coach Ferriter was also one of the promoters in getting Pulaski Academy into the Arkansas Athletic Association. Besides coaching a winning football team this year, he also teaches Algebra and Driver's Education. He is very popular around the campus and is best known for one liners. His most famous one and most often used one is "You YaHoo!"

The people that most respect Coach is the football team. As one player said "He keeps up the team morale and sticks with us through thick and thin. He tries to uplift the team after a big loss and makes us work that much harder to get a win." Coach Ferriter has got to be the most respected man at Pulaski Academy and has contributed greatly to the growth of our school. The Faculty and Student body of this school would like to thank you very much. This is your book, Coach!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

The Pulaski Academy drama class presented a children's theatre production of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs in the Black Forest" November 20th. The cast included Michele Winstead as Snow White, Lisa Simmons as the wicked Queen Bella, Jeff Hyde as King Absent-Minded, Dan Browning as Prince Goodhearted and Mary Matkin as Maid Dimwitty. The dwarfs were aptly portrayed by Kevin Hughes, Scott Stockburger, Brooks Caruthers, Ev Nelson, Marshall Schuster, Larry Morse, and Jamie Crossland. Snow White's animal friends were Primrose, Kara Seay; Tillie the Turtle, Laurie Nutt; Bunnie and Bonnie were Beth Cornell and Kathy Elder. The spirits of the forest were frighteningly acted by Phil Pate, Pam White and Beth Bray. Servant to the King was Susan Murphy. The backstage technical crew was nammed by Mike Wright, John Hogg, Greg Sterns, Greg Smith and Mark Harrison. The play was directed by Mrs. Marilyn Choate.

Young Life Club

On Monday nights, many of the sophomores, juniors, and seniors from Hall, St. Mary's Catholic, and P.A. attend Young Life. Young Life is a Christian organization for high school students. It is held at Pulaski Heights Baptist Church. Danny Tedder, a graduate of Hall, is the leader of the group. Young Life's activities include singing songs, doing skits, and Bible study. All of the clubs from the central Arkansas area meet twice a year during all-city night. This year, this meeting was held in the lower gym at P.A. The group also takes an annual trip to Colorado during spring break for skiing.

Peter Guerin helped lead songs at all-city.

One of the many zany skits performed by the Young Life leaders.

A typical night at Young Life.

Bruin Pride

1979 was a year of firsts for the Bruins. They won their conference with a 4-0 conference record. The Bruins lost to three teams, two of which were state champions in their respective classifications. The Bruins were lead by a group of talented seniors that worked hard along with the rest of the team. (Above) Bruin Pride carried the Bruins to the playoffs. (Right) The Bruins started their season upsetting Bauxite 3-0.

*The Bruins lost to Mountain Pine in the Class A Playoffs.

From the opening upset of the Bauxite Miners, to the thrill of the State Playoffs, the Bruins shined. They had no trouble in the new 5A-Central conference, beating all conference teams they played. The three teams they lost to all made their respective playoffs. The Bruins won their first season opener, they bombed Jefferson, and completely embarrassed Joe T. We lost our first Homecoming game, but bounced back to win the rest of their games and make the playoffs. The Bruins had 13 players make all-conference. They've won the pride of Pulaski Academy.

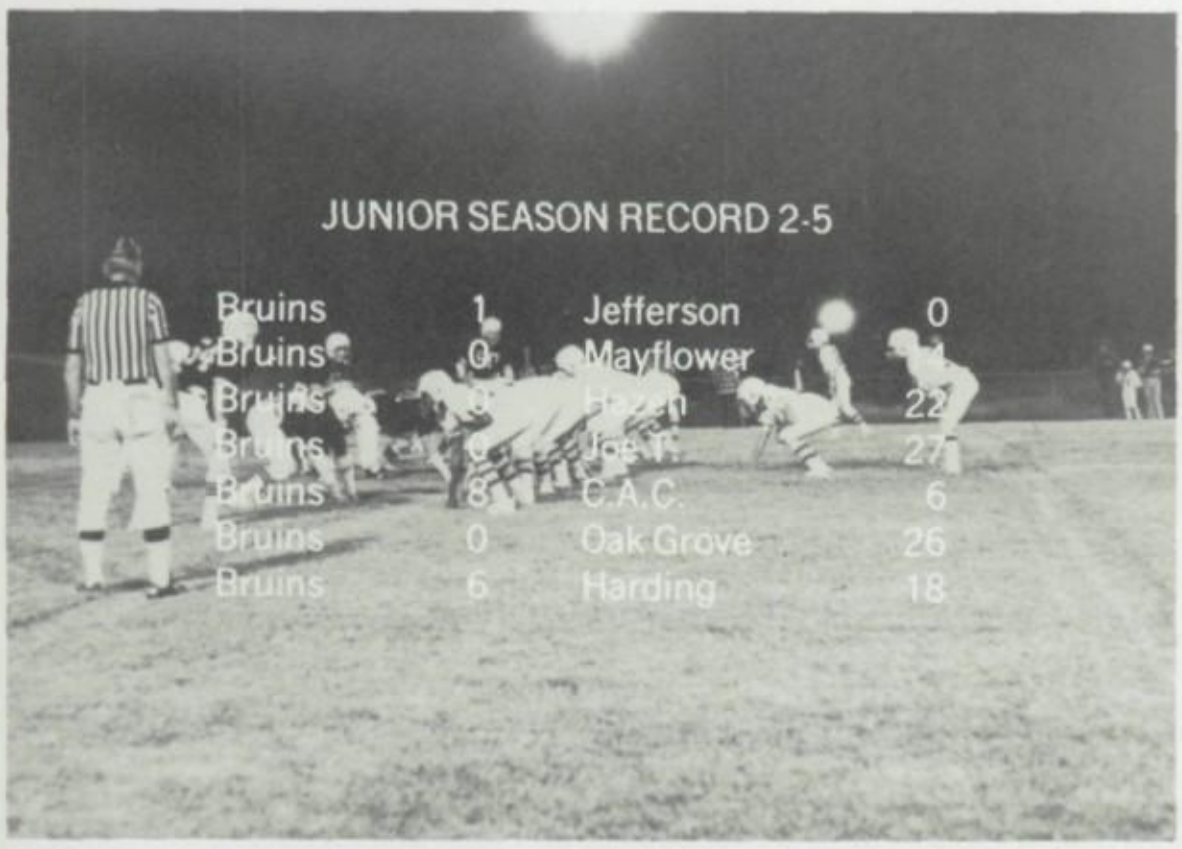
The seventh and eighth grade boys played football on Saturdays and before Junior games. They faced tough opponents, but made a late comeback to have a winning season. The players played well during the final games and showed promise for future football teams.



The Junior High football team faced more experienced teams, but they won some games and showed conference teams that they had a lot of talent. With a forfeit from Jefferson, exciting Homecoming win over C.A.C., they still had a chance to win their conference. They put up a good fight at Harding, but they fell a little short of the final conference victory, which eliminated their hopes of winning the conference.

One of the Bruins most exciting games was their Homecoming game against C.A.C. The Bruins were trailing 0-6 late in the game, but won the game with a great defensive effort. Kevian Gillian threw a surprise pass to Sheldon Smith, who won the footrace to the goal line. Briar Terrebonne carried in the 2-point conversion that was the difference in the game.

The Pulaski Academy Senior Girls, at the end of the regular season, had a conference record of 4-2, and were in a three way tie for first place. With a record of 11 wins and seven losses (with only one game being excluded by the incomplete season record), they had their first winning season since 1976. The girls enjoyed playing by the boys rules this year, since a court decision changed the six-man girls' basketball. The girls only had one senior, Kerri Swink, who showed her senior leadership throughout the season. The Bruins showed power in the 5A Central, defeating everybody in the conference at least once.

This year was the start of girls' volleyball at P.A. The girls won a game against Bryant, but faced tough opponents and didn't win a match. A plaque was placed in the cabinet to commemorate the start of a new girls' sport at P.A. The girls had little time to practice before their first game, but they improved as their season progressed.

Best All Around

David Whitehurst
Kerri Swink

The words "congratulations on a job well done" have become very familiar ones to Kerri Swink and David Whitehurst this year. Being chosen SR. class favorites simply adds to their long lists of accomplishments. Their leadership, maturity, and true "Senior" attitudes have made them worthy of tbe title Best All Around.

P.A. Welcomes New Lower School Headmaster

1979 brought a new headmaster to Pulaski Academy's lower school with the arrival of Mr. Mike Parrish. Mr. Parrish came to us from the Miami Valley school in Dayton, Ohio, and says emphatically that the change was for the better. He is very excited to be at P.A., and views the position as a fantastic opportunity for him to try new programs and ideas with the students at P.A. One of the things he likes most in the Academy is the fact that there are much more social and extracurricular activities offered to a P.A. students, rather than just "straight academics".

CREATIVITY is Mr. Parrish's favorite quality, and he encourages it in the teachers as well as himself. He's happy at P.A. because it's given him the change to be creative. The "Super Bruins" program which he instituted this fall is just one example. There are other evidences of his influence atound the school, though . . . the Kindergarten Building now has new lofts and workbenches that he built himself.

We think we're bear-ry lucky to have this new Bruin — thanks Mr. Parrish!

TOP TEN '79 . . .

Screen '79

1 APOCALYPSE NOW
Like the Vietnam war, Francis Coppola's opus has a murky, unsatisfying plot, but it is haunting, often beautiful and lives up to most of its hype.

2 THE BLACK STALLION
It proves Hollywood can still do a simple boy-meets-horse film that's spirited and lovely to see.

3 BREAKING AWAY
Though growing up is hard to do, especially for townies in Bloomington, Ind., home of the state university, this modest film makes watching the struggle a glowing experience.

4 THE CHINA SYNDROME
Hah, they said. Another shrill Jane Fonda crusade, they said. Then came Three Mile Island.

5 ESCAPE FROM ALCATRAZ
Just as it seemed that Clint Eastwood was nothing but bullets, roadblocks and fists, he delivers a stark thriller of some distinction.

6 KRAMER VS. KRAMER
Meryl Streep vs. Dustin Hoffman in an achingly accurate child custody battle. As actors, both win.

7 LA CAGE AUX FOLLES
It's a mid-life crisis en francais involving a couple of aging gays in a bittersweet comedy.

8 LIFE OF BRIAN
Ye of great humor or little faith will enjoy this satire of a reluctant savior, but don't forgive the Monty Pythonites; they knew exactly what they were doing.

9 MANHATTAN
The city everyone loves to hate never looked so lovely, neurotic or fascinating as in Woody Allen's comic portrait, an Interiors that works.

10 THE ROSE
By any other name — such as The Captivating Debut of Bette Midler as a Joplinesque Singer — it would be as sweet.

Pages '79

1 LAUREN BACALL BY MYSELF
by Lauren Bacall A "nice Jewish girl" grew up to be a famous model and movie star, marry Humphrey Bogart and write (without a ghost) this pungent, unselfconscious autobiography.

2 FUNGUS THE BOGEYMAN
by Raymond Briggs An unlikely hero, a trollish do-badder who likes to wear soggy clothes, surfaces in this cartoon saga appealing to the perverse in kids — or adults.

3 THE CULTURE OF NARCISSIM
by Christopher Lasch The "Me Decade" gets its comeuppance in a hard-to-read, hard-to-dismiss exploration of society's selfish new mind-set.

4 THE RISE OF THEODORE ROOSEVELT
by Edmund Morris We won't have TR's canal much longer, but his ambition, verve and unexcelled egocentricity live in an uncompromising biography.

5 THE POPE OF GREENWICH VILLAGE
by Vincent Patrick it's only crime fiction, only about scruffy New York types, only a terrific first novel.

6 SOPHIE'S CHOICE
by William Styron in potent prose, Styron spares neither his heroine (who survived the Holocaust) nor himself, vaguely disguised as the protagonist.

7 THE MEDUSA AND THE SNAIL
by Lewis Thomas His essay subjects range from warts to dying with calm, and this research biologist always has something fresh to contribute.

8 SERPENTINE
by Thomas Thompson The author of Blood and Money establishes himself as the best crime writer in the business with this chilling chronicle of an alleged Asian killer who preyed on tourists.

9 BIRDY
by William Wharton A young man obsessed with our feathered friends flies, literally and figuratively, in the year's most original fiction.

10 THE DUKE OF DECEPTION
by Geoffrey Wolff the literary critic's confessional autobiography reveals his late father as a detestable con man; the implications about child-parent relations go far behond his family.

Song '79

1 ROSANNE CASH
Roseanne Cash Johnny's 24-year old daughter isn't just cashing in on the name. Hers is perhaps '79's most promising country-oriented debut LP.

2 SLOW TRAIN COMING
Bob Dylan His new faith and gritty, soulful sound prove Jesus music needn't wear white bucks.

3 OFF THE WALL
Michael Jackson Having survived The Wiz, he's rocking on solo and spectacularly so; now it's Michael and the Jackson Four.

4 LUCKY SEVEN
Bob James The fussy keyboard man and his roster of perfectionists add a surprise — pretty melodies — to jazz-pop-soul fusion.

5 DON GIOVANNI
Paris Opera Orchestra From the new movie sound track; Lorin Maazel briskly directs and international cast sings a worthy new interpretation of Mozart's masterpiece.

6 TUSK
Fleetwood Mac Unlike the Eagles (in the year's other most-awaited release), Mac didn't pander to its fans' affection with a retread, but challenged it with an ambitious new sound.

7 THE WALL
Pink Floyd
The band's signature sound is a gorgeous product of studio technology employing wild guitar chords, synthesizer space music.

8 WANTED
Richard Pryor This performance LP is so outrageously funny, even honkies will hoot.

9 BAD GIRLS
Donna Summer it wasn't the breakthrough she promised, but disco's finest 71 minutes.

10 FLAG
James Taylor Pop-rock's most ingratiating voice and most enjoyably sad composer hasn't struck his standard.
